

To the FCC:I am a big fan of Satelllite Radio. Both XM & Sirius services provide quality programing simply not available on local radio stations. The right to compete in a free and equal playing field market place should be protected, not one type of media being protected from another.
Thank You.